

Statement from The Hartford Courant

"George Gombossy has consistently mischaracterized the circumstances surrounding his departure from The Hartford Courant for his own personal gain. Mr. Gombossy was not under any contract requiring his continued employment as our consumer reporter and a business decision was made to move in another direction that did not require his particular talents.

"It was the Courant's right to make that decision. We stand by it and we will defend it."

Courant.com